PREDICTIVE PROPHECIES IN SCRIPTURE ABOUT FUTURE FREE HUMAN CHOICES OR EVENTS INVOLVING FREE HUMAN CHOICES

In a comprehensive survey, I have identified a total of 4,017 predictive prophecies in canonical Scripture.¹ Of these, 2,323 are predictive prophecies concerning future free human decisions or events that involve in one way or another such free decisions. In what follows, I will list these 2,323 predictive prophecies by reference only. Following this list, I will quote 300 representative prophecies, 157 from the Old Testament and 143 from the New Testament, to illustrate the number and variety and precision of such biblical predictions.² Taken together, they form a strong quantitative argument for God's foreknowledge of free human decisions.

2,323 BIBLICAL PROPHECIES RELATING TO FREE HUMAN DECISIONS (By Reference Only)

Old Testament Texts

Genesis 3:15; 3:16; 4:12b; 4:14; 5:29; 6:18; 9:24; 9:26-27; 12:2-3; 12:7; 13:14-17; 15:4-5; 15:13; 15:15; 15:16; 15:18-21; 16:11-12; 17:3-8; 17:15-16; 17:19-21; 18:10-14;

¹These 4,017 predictive prophecies can be broken down into the following categories: 128 prophecies about what God will do in and through nature; 1,893 prophecies about what God will do in and to and through human beings; 1,474 prophecies about what believers will do or have happen to them (without God explicitly being said to do these things); and 522 prophecies about what unbelievers will do or have happen to them.

²Two other factors were involved in the selection of the prophecies listed in this supplement. First, I have not included any prophetic statements that are explicitly conditional in grammatical form. The implications of conditional prophecies are discussed in more depth in chapter four of the book. Second, to remove any possible doubts that these prophecies involve future free human decisions, I have intentionally omitted exclusively messianic prophecies (these are dealt with in the text of chapter four) and predictive prophecies about what Jesus Christ will do in the future. (This is in no way meant to deny the reality of the full and complete human nature of Jesus Christ, but only to recognize the absolute uniqueness of the incarnate Son of God.)

When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power.”

134. Dan 9:26b-27—After the Anointed One will be cut off: “The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The law will go out from Zion. . . . He will judge between many peoples and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide. ⁵To understand this and the following texts from Revelation as predictive prophecies, it is not necessary to specify one of the four primary interpretive frameworks for understanding this book: preterist, historicist, futurist and idealist. All of them understand elements of Rev 4:1—22:21 to relate to the future. (Even the most rigidly preterist interpretations which understand the events depicted in the book of Revelation to be largely fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70 take the book to be written prior to that date. Thus these passages would still be predictive prophecies.) See the discussion in G. K. Beale, The Book of Revelation: A Commentary on the Greek Text NICGNT (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1999), pp. 44-48; Robert H. Mounce, The Book of Revelation: Revised Edition NICNT (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1998), pp. 24-30; C. Marvin Pate, ed., Four Views on the Book of Revelation, (Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1998).

was a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed . . . and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.”

281. Rev 13:3-4—“One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and followed the beast. Men worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast.”

282. Rev 13:5-8—“The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise this authority for forty-two months. He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name. . . . He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb who was slain from the creation of the world.”

283. Rev 13:12—Another beast coming out of the earth “exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.”

284. Rev 13:14-17—By miraculous signs, this beast “deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lives. He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. He also forced everyone . . . to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark.”

285. Rev 15:3-4—The song of Moses and of the Lamb: “Great and marvelous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, King of the ages. 286. Rev 16:8-9—As a result of the fourth bowl of God’s wrath (the sun was given power to scorch people with fire): “They cursed the name of God, who had control over these plagues, but they refused to repent and glorify him.”

287. Rev 16:10-11—The fifth bowl (darkness): “Men gnawed their tongues in agony and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, but they refused to repent of what they had done.”

288. Rev 16:14-16—The spirits of demons, performing miraculous signs, “go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of God Almighty. . . . Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.”

289. Rev 17:10-11—The seven heads of the beast “are seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while. The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.”

290. Rev 17:12-14—“The ten horns are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. 294. Rev 19:19-21—“Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. . . . The [beast and the false prophet] were thrown into the fiery lake of burning sulfur. The rest of them were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse.”

295. Rev 20:4-6—Those beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus “came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years. . . . The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.”

296. Rev 20:8-9—After the thousand years, Satan is released “and will go out to deceive the nations . . . to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God’s people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them.”

297. Rev 21:3—In the new Jerusalem: “Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and he himself will be with them and be their God.”

300. Rev 22:6—Angel to John: “These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place.”
